

Sat 12 th	Convergence Space	The Island, Bridewell St	The Croft, Stokes Croft
		10.30am – 18.00pm Bristol Anarchist Bookfair- Stalls Tools and Workshops for a new future, plus cafe and film room.	8.00pm onwards Anarchist Bookfair Benefit- Featuring Gary Clail, Bus Station Loonies, Suit Burners, DJ's: Cutterz, Patrick Bolton, Shabby Shitegeist, BlackRainbow, +more...£5 before 11, £4 before 11 with bookfair ticket, £6 after 11.
Sun 13 th	Convergence Space	The Island, Bridewell St
	All Day Get here early if you can and help to assemble the Co-Mutiny! Come and fix the space and learn some new skills. 12.00pm – 2.00pm Stencil Cutting – Suggested donation £5 to cover costs of materials. 2.30pm – 4.00pm Critiques of Carbon Markets – a presentation of carbon trading specifically focusing on Clean Development Mechanism and voluntary offset markets, using a case study of India's first and largest CDM project (Gujarat Fluorochemicals Ltd). Followed by discussion. 4.30pm – 6.30pm Anti militarism : An interactive workshop introducing the areas of anti-militarist network, arguments for and against the military industrial complex, campaigning and looking after yourself. 7.00pm – 9.00pm Climate Justice - As governments and corporations continue to plan a land grab and a massive carve up at this years' climate summit this workshop looks at the idea of climate justice. What does it mean? How are campaigns against climate change in UK linked to a long history of resistance around the world and how can we make these links stronger? (participatory workshop with plans for local action and ideas for Copenhagen).	4.30pm onwards Squid Ink Screenprinting Collective - Learn and develop screenprinting skills. Donations appreciated for ink.
Mon 14 th	Convergence Space	Convergence Space 2	TBA
	All Day Animal Rights Action 12.00pm – 2.00pm Seeds for Change – Introducing and developing consensus decision making skills. 3.00pm-4.30pm Food - A brief history of industrial agriculture and how we got to this mess and how it is being resisted around world. An interactive workshop with slides if possible. 5.00pm – 6.30pm Resisting destitution : Asylum, migration, paradox – What's the difference between undocumented migration and seeking asylum? How much support does an asylum-seeker get? At what points does a person become ineligible for employment, housing and financial aid in the UK – and how did borders ever get so selective? Discussion-based forum will explore the meaning of the current UK system for migrants and asylum-seekers in Bristol, and the different ways forced destitution is already being politicised. Direct action; campaigning; hospitality networks; publishing other peoples' testimony – we will think through the hidden implications of trying to 'resist' in obvious ways, and try and unpick some of the clashing ideas around the 'freedom of movement'. 7.00pm – 9.00pm This will be a dialogical session, aiming to explore our own assumptions as well as those of the 'system.' Well-informed, baffled or curious, come with an open mind and a willingness to grapple with a bit of complexity. Discussion - Pros & cons of non-violent direct action. [FACILITATOR NEEDED!]	2.00pm – 4.00pm Subvertising – For ten years a group called The Saint-Just Mob have been active in South Bristol subverting advertising. The workshop will discuss the aims and show practical methods of these serious fun and games. A selection of photographs will show subvertising examples.	3.30pm Animal Rights demo against Huntingdon Life Sciences Customer. Contact barc@hotmail.co.uk for further information. Expect to arrive back in Bristol by 7pm.
Tues 15 th	Convergence Space	Easton Community Allotment	Trinity Police Station, Old Market	Full Moon, Stokes Croft
	All Day No Borders Action 12.00pm – 3.00pm Seeds for Change – Developing facilitation skills. 6.30pm onwards Radical Knitting – From the spinning and preparation of wool, to basic balaclava knitting, to advanced work. All abilities welcome, vegan alternatives discussed. 7.30pm onwards DIY Sound - A workshop developing sound engineering skills.	12.00pm onwards A tour and working day at Easton Community Allotment, running since 2001 as a social space for people who want to learn how to grow fruit and vegetables, drink lots of tea and share the harvest. With wormeries, composting toilet, and rainwater harvesting systems made of recycled Materials. With wormeries, composting toilet, and rainwater harvesting systems made of recycled Materials. For directions and more information look at www.myspace.com/eastoncommunityallotment email lucy@mitchell@googlemail.com or call Lucy 07833330581	10.00am-12.00pm Bristol No Borders invites you to a participatory "Why No Borders?" workshop outside Trinity police station (near Old Market, opp. Trinity Community Garden), to show solidarity with criminalized asylum seekers and find out more about what we as a group do. Musical entertainment and free food provided.	7.30pm onwards Anti-War Anti-Racist Queer Reading Group – Newly formed group reading 'Terrorist Assemblages' by Jasbir K Puarfirst. Disabled Access.
Wed 16 th	Convergence Space	City Centre	City Farm Cafe, St Werburghs
	All Day Worker Solidarity Action 12.00pm - 2.00pm Radical Knitting – From the spinning and preparation of wool, to basic balaclava knitting, to advanced work. All abilities welcome, vegan alternatives discussed. 2.30pm – 4.30pm ABC - Open Letter Writing Session – Focussing on green scare and environmental prisoners. 5.00pm – 6.30pm Radical Songwriting - Folk, punk, hip hop and beyond... Plus how to bypass the corporate music business! All levels catered for - from absolute beginners onwards. With Cosmo- www.cosmoguitar.net 8.00pm – 9.30pm Cosmo - Oi Mush single launch party + video screening + guests	3.00pm onwards Bristol Anarchist Games - The street is a critical symbol because your whole conditioning is geared to keeping you indoors. Come and subvert corporate enclosures with a series of games: Capture the flag, musical chairs, sardines. Bring your own game ideas! Meet in the roundabout at the bottom of Stokes Croft.	12.00pm Fancy knowing your alders from your elders and your birch from your beech? A relaxed tree identification talk and walk through St Werburghs, lots of chatting about folklore and uses.
Thur 17 th	Convergence Space	City Centre	TBA
	All Day Climate Chaos Action 2.00pm – 3.30pm Reclaim the Beat – A rhythm workshop making modern beats with reclaimed and found items. Kids and adults welcome. 4.00pm – 6.00pm Seeds for Change – NVDA: Engaging and Disengaging with the Police 7.00pm – 9.00pm Seeds for Change – Activist Legal Briefing and Practice	1.00pm-3.00pm Walking Woman – Theatrical-Meditative Action, moving around the city centre. Meet in Queens Square.	12.00pm – 2.00pm Animal Rights Demo – Meet at Convergence Space 1 hour before. 6.00pm – 10.00pm Animal Rights Demo – Meet at Convergence Space 1 hour before.
Fri 18 th	Convergence Space	City Centre	The Plough, Easton
	All Day Repossess the Banks Action 11.00am	11.00am Repossess the Banks – A carnivalesque tour of the financial district. Meet at the fountains, opposite the Hippodrome.	7.30pm – late BARC Benefit gig at The Plough. Spanner, Refuse/all, Tracey Curtis and Anarcho Folk.
Sat 19 th	Convergence Space	Kebele, Robertson Road, Easton	City Centre	Feeder Park, Barton Hill
	All Day Autonomous Actions 1.30pm – 3.30pm Going Vegan, Maintaining a Healthy Diet – Workshop/Discussion 4.00pm – 6.00pm Noctv surveillance activists from Oxford who've had success at getting cameras taken down, will be heading a talk/workshop, with possibility of starting a Bristol group.	2.00pm – 4.00pm Learn some basic head massage techniques to try on your friends. Relax and enjoy!	12.00pm onwards Palestine Solidarity Boycott Event. Meet by the sails, opposite the Hippodrome. Roaming leafleting actions outside COOP stores in central Bristol. Despite their ethical stance, COOP stores still stock Israeli products! 3.00pm: Return to Centre to join regular Peace Vigil until 4pm. Bring Palestine flags, placards and banners. 12.00pm – 4.30pm Vegan food stall. Any offers of vegan food for the stall welcome! Meet in Broadmead.	8.00pm onwards Spoke'n'Chain present an outdoor solar powered cycling cinema event: VEER - a full length documentary about the ever unfolding road map of underground bike culture in America, the fastest growing revolution in the world. Re-Cycle - The Journey of the Mighty Bike; short documentary about 30,000 unwanted bicycles that have been collected and repaired by Re-Cycle volunteers and sent to Africa. One Thing After – A short animation featuring a man on a bicycle. Spazzammer – live bicycle powered microrave. Come on a bicycle and light them up for the ride home. For details, maps, etc.. go to http://bikebeard.blogspot.com/. Suggested donation £3
Sun 20 th	Convergence Space	Around Bristol
	All Day Autonomous Actions	all day The Climate Rush will trot into Bristol by horse drawn cart, in full Edwardian attire as part of their September road-show (climaterush.co.uk/whatnext), ready to galvanise one of Britain's greenest cities into a day of creative action. 9am onwards Join in with street art Climate Rush style as we adorn a wall in Stokes Croft with beautiful murals inspired by climate justice. Call 07878535968 to get involved... 1pm Bring food, drink, family and music to our anti-airport expansion picnic protest – to be held on COLLEGE GREEN. We'll be holding forums on the grass with Friends of the Earth to discuss BIA issues and celebrate the city council's formal objection to it! 5.00pm Hordes of cyclists will descend on the centre of Bristol opposite the Hippodrome to take back the road, in the tradition of critical mass. Swooping through the city they'll enliven the city with their vision for a sustainable future. 6.15pm For Non-Cyclists, the ride will then convene for a second time, on Corn Street. From here, the expanded troupe will march to a secret location for a huge public game of 'capture the flag', in an hilarious reclamation of urban space. 8.30pm Free Gig! Polish off a delightful day with grub and music at HAMILTON HOUSE, we'll have folk and acoustic before 10, then we'll speed it up and turn it up 'till midnight.		